ENJOY THESE EVENTS ALL SEASON

FARM HERITAGE TRAIL KICKOFF FESTIVITIES – MAY 7

Drive or cycle this new route through beautiful conserved farmland, and sample homemade gourmet goodies at farm stops along the way. Opening events take place May 7 at the Sandy Mush Community Center, Leicester, and then the touring route offers an ever-changing bounty year round. For details visit www.farmheritagetrail.org.

BILTMORE BLOOMS – TO MAY 26

The extensive gardens at Biltmore Estate burst with color and fragrance during this annual springtime bloom celebration. Walk through acres of immaculate flowerbeds, and through a century-old woodland landscape that still looks fresh today. For details visit www.biltmore.com.

BEST OF TRACKSIDE STUDIOS EXHIBIT – MAY 1 – JUNE 25

Asheville's River Arts District just keeps getting better. Daily during May and June, visitors are invited to stop by the Depot Street studios to see the work of 17 artists in one venue, free of charge. Why not furnish your new mountain home with local paintings, glass and sculpture? For details see www.tracksidestudios375.com.

A WILD FOOD FORAGING ADVENTURE – THROUGH NOVEMBER

Hike as you learn how to harvest food from the wild. Then head to the kitchen and enjoy a feast. Specialist guides and chefs from Wild Food Adventures can craft a tour or workshop to suit any interest. Excursions and retreats can be scheduled individually. For details see www.notastelikehome.org.

DOWNTOWN ASHEVILLE ART DISTRICT (DAAD) – FIRST FRIDAY STROLLS

More than 25 art galleries in downtown Asheville roll out the red carpet on first Friday evenings every month through December. This vibrant scene includes top quality art shown in often elegant – but sometimes funky – surroundings. This year catch newcomer Lexington Glassworks' Hot Glass, Cold Beer gatherings. For details see www.downtownashevilleartdistrict.org.

ONE TIME AND OTHER ONGOING EVENTS

34TH ANNUAL PIEDMONT PASO FINO HORSE SHOW – JUNE 16-19

Enjoy a top-ranked horse show during this free weekend event at the WNC AG Center, near Asheville's airport. Marvel at elegant and high-stepping Paso Fino horses, a historic breed with Spanish roots, as they work with their skilled riders. The whole family can ooh and aah together as renowned competitors take to the ring. For details see www.ashevillealive.net.

50TH ANNUAL SHINDIG ON THE GREEN – SATURDAYS JULY 2 – SEPTEMBER 3

This much-loved Asheville cultural experience takes place in the heart of town on Saturday evenings all summer. Bring your own blanket or folding chair and “set a spell” as the sun goes down. On tap: old-time and bluegrass music with lots of verve. Singing, dancing, storytelling, instrumentals. All true mountain heritage, shared with love and pride. For details see www.folkheritage.org.

FOLKMOOT INTERNATIONAL DANCE PARTY – JULY 30

Get your dancing shoes on and come see how 200 dance “ambassadors” from around the world can shake the rafters. Held at The Orange Peel, this ticketed event harnesses downtown Asheville's love of movement, color and sound – the louder the better. For details see www.theorangepeel.net.

REMINDER: BARNAROO

BARNAROO AT FRANNY'S FARM – SEPTEMBER 30 – OCTOBER 2

Don't forget this outdoor party at Franny's Farm in nearby Leicester. Camping, music, and lots of good food...all to benefit The Asheville Music School. Check it out at www.ashevillebarnaroo.com.
